POLITICAL. TAMMANY HALI

MASS-MEETING

THE DEMOCRACY OF NEW YORK

IN AND AROUND

TAMMANY HALL

Tuesday Evig. Oct. 25, 1892, at 8 e'clock,

GROVER CLEVELAND

ADLAI E. STEVENSON

OR PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT OF

THE UNITED STATES.

THE UNITED STATES.

Also to ratify the following county nominations:
FOR MAYOR—THOMAS P. GILROY.
FOR PRESIDENT OF BOARD OF ALDERMEN—GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN.
FOR COUNTY CLERK—HENRY D. PURROT.
FOR REGISTER—FERDINAND LEVY.
FOR JUDIES OF COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
—LEONARD A. GIEGERICH.
FOR CITY JUDGE—RUFUS B. COWING.
FOR ADDITIONAL SURROGATE—FRANK T.
FITZGERALD.

And also to indorse all the local nominations of

Hon. ROSWELL P. FLOWER Will Preside.

HON. ISIDOR RAYNOR, OF MARY-LAND HON. WILLIAM F. SHEEHAN, OF BUFFALO, HROOKI R HOVT NICHOLS.

WARD HAR COCKRAN.

DE LA COCKRAN.

OF LA COCKRAN.

OF LA COCKRAN.

FRANKII BARTATATA

HON. JOHN De WITT WARNER.

Hon. George F. Rossoh. Hon. T. J. Campbell.

Hon. William L. Brown.

Hon. Jacob A. Centor.

Hon. Jacob Hon.

Hon. Chas. G. F. Wanie.

Hon. Chas. G. F. Wanie.

Hon. Chas. K. Blumer, F. Ee.

Hon. Chas. G. F. Wanie.

Hon. John H. McClark, Hon.

Hon. John

MASS-MEETING

BANKERS, MERCHANTS

FAVORING THE ELECTION OF

Cleveland and Stevenson,

WILL BE HELD AT THE SUB-TREAS

URY STEPS IN WALL STREET,

THURSDAY, OCT. 27,

AT 3 O'CLOCK P. M.

The meeting will be addressed by

Hon. DAVID A. BOODY, Mayor of Brooklys Hon. THOMAS M. WALLER, of Connecticut

AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S Theatre, Eves., S. 15: Mat. Wed., Sat. YE EARLIE TROUBLE.
Prices-Lower floor, 7bc., 81, 81.50, Bai., 50c., fbc., 61; Family Cir., Res., 50c., Gen'l Admiss., 50c.

THE MONSTER ORCHESTRION.

PLAYS EVERY ATTERNOON AND EVENTMO.

BROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS.

PRINTOSE & WEST'S MINSTRELS

CRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

THE TWO SISTERS.

BEDFORD AVF. THEATRE, 8.6th st., R'way & Bed. ave. 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c, 1.00. This week, Malinese Wednaaday and Saturday, THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA. Next Week-U.S. GRANT.

SPORTING.

COLUMBIA. EDWIN KNOWLES & CO.,
Propressor. Matiness Wed. and Sat. THE BOSTONIANS ROBIN HOOD.

MOVELTY THEATRE,
Commencing Munday, Cet. 24,
Water Sandro's Grand production
THE NIMUGGLE OF LIFE.
Next West—James Rielly as A German Sel

ion. MICHAEL D. HARTER, of Ohio.

Ion. JOHN E. RUSSELL, of Man and BUSINESS MEN

SHEEL TAYLOR, OF TEN-HON. JAMES W. BIDGWAT, OF

HON, DAVID B. HILL.

CHANGES AT THE THEATRES.

Hallen and Hart's New Musical Comedy, "The Idea."

New PARK THEATRE.

Dora Whey, "the sweet singer of Maine," was one of the best pictures of the capital vandeville reformance at the New Park Theatre last night, Others were Girard Leon, Marion and Post, Deian and Lenharr, Fred C. Bryant, Ramza and Arno, Cain and Gradoff, Lottie Elliott, Dan Regan, William McGonnigle, F. P. Doherthey, May Seymour and Besie Stantope. In fact there was not only quality but quantity. "Current Cash" Makes Its First Appearance at Niblo's.

Hallen and Hart presented a new musical arco-comedy at the Fourteenth Street Tucare last night, relinquishing " Later On," which had become somewhat threadbare. The new piece is the work of Herbert Hall Winslow, a clever young playwright, and Joseph Hart. Its little is "The Idea." Hallen and Hert have surrounded themselves with a ood company, and they themselves are inde fatigable. A review of the performance will appear in to-morrow's Evening World.

NIBLO'S GARDEN. was acted at Niblo's Garden last night by an excellent company, including several metropolitan favorites. The piece was popular in ventional lines-the lines that Nibio patrons njoy. The first act takes place in Afghanistan and the succeeding acts in England. The piece was well staged, and neatly acted by Henry Lee, samuel Edwards, M. J. Jordan, Charles Erin Verner and little Katle Hughes.

HARLEM OPERA HOUSE. Jolly Surprise" was the play at the Fanny R.c. was the star. This was something of a change from the attraction of the preceding week, "hobin Hood," but variety is said to be the spice of the, and everything goes. Miss kice is quite popular, and she does a great deal in "A Jolly Surprise," singling, dancing and wearing many different dresses. Several acceptable uoveitles have been introduced into the piece. GARDEN THEATRE.

"The Fairles' Well," which was the play at the Windsor Thea re last night, is founded upon as All Hallow Een legend, which sets forth that if a maid would see her future husband, she must go alone at mignight and look into a well on Condon's Height. The picce is a good one in its way. It is full or bright incidents, and it admits of various specialties being introduced. It was well acted and nicely staged.

BERRMANN'S THEATRE. HERMANN'S THEATRE.

Herrmann's new Chinese illusion "Ya-Ka-Yo." of which a great deal has been said, was given to tue public last night at Herrmann's Theatre. It was done as neatly and as deftly as at the special matines, and the clever necromancer may add it to his long list of successes. The entertainment was a very good one. There was nothing on the programme that was not worth seeing. Herrmann is a host in nimself, and a most pleasing one.

COUMBUS THEATRE.

Egler. The Union has resolved to regularly and retiles its employment by the Central Labor Union in that city to attend a mass-meeting on Nov. 2 to define their position as to the labor refusing to appear will be boycetied at the polls, as well as those failing to answer questions are progressing to amalga-

DORIG'S MUSEUM.

Fanny Herring, in a play called "Dick Turpin," appeared in Theatre No. 1 of Doris's Eighth Avenue Museum, yesterday, and gave a capital performance. In Theatre No. 2, was a vaudeville company, and in Theatre No. 3, Fitzgeraid's puppet show. In the curio halls were W. C. Coup's sixteen bronco horses, which remain for the present week only. These animals are exceedingly interesting, and it is curious to see how thoroughly they have been trained. TONY PASTOR'S.

DORIG'S MUSEUM.

Weber and Field's own company appeared at Tony Pastor's Theatre last night. The organization included Weber and Fields,

Haines and Vidocq, Maud Huth: the Acme Four. In a very lunny act; the Garmedia Brothers, Johnny Carroll: Richmond and Glenroy, who are known as "comedy boom-ers;" the Braatz Brothers, exceedingly clever acrebats; Drummond and Staley, the inusical blacksmiths, and Whitney and Shephard. There was a large audience.

NEW PARE THEATRE.

KOSTER AND BIAL'S.

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

Baseball Closes Its Tame Career for 1892.

Windle's Cycling Records Accepted by L. A. W. Board.

KOSTER AND BIAL'S.

There was not much poverty at Koster & and to-day this once most popular of all Blai's Concert Hall last night. Novelty was American pastimes is out the faintest of not necessary, for the programme of the preceding week was so excelent that it was thought good policy to retain it. The pitought good policy to retain it. The pitous way, and eccentric M. and Mme. Berat resumed their inimitable work. Kathpions way, and eccentric M. and Mme. Berat resumed their inimitable work. Kathpionship, settled the question and baseball closed its somnoient career for 1892. The Atman gave a number of clever impersonations. Clevelands, incidentally, it must be said, were quite effectually put to sleep in the struggle for supremacy, and they can only look tack with amazement at the disphanous quality of the game they put up in the last dash for championship honors. The cigar-makers of J. Teichmann & Sons Five straight victories were scored by the mighty men from the Hub, and that put a Ple-Bakers' Union No. 48 will have its nousi ball Dec. 10.

Laundry girls at Louisville, Ky., struck for higher wages, got their beaux and friends to boycott the concern and won easily.

The Mahoney Valley fromworkers are said to have raised $50,000 for the strikers in the windup of this pastime comes with no especial regret to lovers of aports. They have especial regret to lovers of sports. They have given it the chillest kind of a "go-by" this It is stated that over three hundred new given it the chilliest kind of a "go-by" this buildings have been erected in Jerusalem season, and the game has been one continued since the completion of the railroad from "frost" from start to finish. Reasons by the Jaffa to the "floly city." "A Jolly Surprise" was the play at the Cloakmakers Union No. 1 has appointed a dence of baseball, and the matter has evoked Panny R.c. was the star. This was some whose first copy will appear Jan. 1, 1893. truck-load have been advanged for the deca-Boston brassworkers are competing for a badge offered to the member securing the largest number of new accessions to the Union.

Union.

Whoelwright and Blacksmiths' Union No. 1 has elected: G. Jenisch, President; B. Kraft,
Vice-President; Frank McQuade, Secretary;
J. Welkert, Treasurer; J. Huber and P. Lawrence, Trustees. "As You like it" is certainly one of the best leatures of Modjeska's repertoire, and its revival last night at the Garden Theatre was a welcome relief from "Heary Vili." Modjeska makes a charming Rosalind, thought there are times when the part seems to be too juvenile for her. Otta Skinner gave a good interpretation of Oriando, and John A. Lane as the melancholy Jaques quile redeemed his rejutation.

GRAND OFERA-HOUSE.

Harry Lacy in the play "A Planter's Wife" was the attraction at the ever-thronged Grand Opera-House last night. The piece went very well indeed, thanks to the cliotes of Mr. Lacy and his asimirable leading lady. Emily High, who is always an artist. The other parts were played by starion Keith, Kate Rawthorie, Mrz. J. Cinton Heil, Walter Walker, Harold Hartseil, George Hagar, Mr. McKin and J. shelley.

There is never any risk in presenting "East lynne" in this city, when Miss Ada Gray plays the parts of Lauy Isabel and Mine. Ying the when the international Labor of Benty in this city, when Miss Ada Gray plays the parts of Lauy Isabel and Mine. Ying the was a large and there was a large and the when the literiations of the Marsellianse "with the acceptance of the Marsellianse" with the season, and the consensus of opinion was that the system was a permictous of the Marsellianse "in this city, when Miss Ada Gray plays the parts of Lauy Isabel and Mine. Ying the was a large and there we have a large and there we have

Mr. McKim and 3. Shelley.

11. R. JACOES THEATRE.

There is never any risk in presenting "East Lynne" in this citry, when Miss Ada Gray plays the parts of Lawy Isabel and Mme. Acted last night at 16. is Jacoby Theatre, and there was a large audience to enjoy it. It is was interesting, and age does use interfere with its charm. Miss Gray still acts as though she appreciated the piece. Frequent repetition has not spoiled her work.

Carroll Johnson, who formerly belonged to the ministrel fraterality, was the star at the People's Theatre last night. "The Gossoon," the work of Edward E. Ridder, was the play. The play is agreeable and ordinary, turnising a pleasant evening's entertainment. Carroll Johnson, who is conely and clever, did good work, and his singing and dancing won the approval of the audience very quickly. The supporting company was fair.

"The Fairles' Well," which was the play the best of the Supporting company was fair.

"The Fairles' Well," which was the play the fire, and he was sent to his interference of the audience of the propers of the section of Labor at Maenner of the American Pederation of Labor at Maenner of the A Statisticians say that in the United States there are 30,000 millionaires and over 500.000 tramps, and in this city the number of millionaires is given at about 1,000, while 40,000 workingwomen are chumerated as receiving less than living wages.

Bak-ra' Calon No. 10 has sent a special committee to the bakery of Boss Zeist to organize his workingen. Another committee is at work trying to unionize the abop of Boss Egler. The Union has resolved to regularly anyertise its employment bureau in The World.

Candidates for Congress at Cieveland, O., Candidates for Congress at Cieveland, O., Stantisle and the latter produces subtantial systems of a good cash stantial systems on the tries of a good cash stantial systems on the work of a good cash "Chawley" Mitchell has at least one friend in America. Fred Watkins, of St. Louis, is the man, and he is desirous of backing the Britisher against Corbett. Editor Lumley, of the Illustrated News, received a proposition yesterday from Watkins, and if the latter produces substantial evidences in the way of a good cash foriet! there may be a fight—some time. But Mitchell is very cunning and as a bluffer is facile princeps.

host in himself, and a most pleasing one.

The Power of the Press, in all the mental first and the polits, as well as those failing to answer of the Press, in any second the press, in any section of affairs for the county theory. The busy pairtenanty effective.

Hill Believe in the Hueser's Gold.

Second the press, in any second the second to the seator coast of press, in any second to press, in any section of a server than the press, and are in the chapter of the county of the press, in any section of a server than the pressure of the county of the pressure of the the bid.

These are the new officers of the Hudson County Waiters and Bartenders' Union: H. Marshail, Secretary and Susiness Manager; B. Reinhardt, Treasurer; E. Geiss and F. Ernst, Trusteres; C. Schoph, A. Dietz and A. Miller, Delegates to the Central Labor Federation: F. Ernst, W. Zeck and O. Bock, Auditors. The Union will withdraw from the Waiters' Local Executive Board of New York and organize a Similar body for Hudson County.

tire, which burned flercely during Sunday night and all day yesterday, has finally been extinguished. A great quantity of timber was destroyed. It is believed that the fire was started by boys.

Fires During the Night. Fire in M. Marcher's beer soloon at 343 reenwich screet did $4 000 damege last Right.

Financel Marana's fruit store at 102 East
One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, was One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, was upmaged $300 by five can; this morning. There was a slight fire at 405 East Seventy-seventh street.

GOSSIP OF FIELD AND RING. YOU CANNOT

FURNITURE AND CARPETS

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK. CHIFFONIERES IN ANTIQUE OAK.

$10.00; worth CARPET DEPARTMENT.

MOQUETTE CARPETS, At $1.25 Per Yard.

S.BAUMANN & BRO 235, 237, 239, 241, 243, 245 SIXTH AVE., WEST SIDE, NEAR 15TH ST.

DIED IN THE STREET.

Unknown Man's Fate-Other

An unknown man about seventy years old. who had white nair and beard and wore the stoop of 251 East Houston street, sick, at was called, but he died before its arrival. police station. There was nothing to lead to his identity.

William swinton, fifty-five years old, of 252 West Eighty-fourth street, died suddenly last night of apoplexy.

John Keivens, aged forty, died suddenly at his home. 229 Kast Forty-third street, at 5 o'clock this morning.

FAIR AND COOL.

That's the Kind of Weather Mr. Dunn

Austin Dobson Competes.

When I saw you last, Rose, You were only so high... How fast the time goes: But perhaps, now, who knows? You were kneeling, you sly Little house-scrubbing Rose! You had tucked un your clothes, And made the dirt ??--How fast the dirt goes When the Sapolio's Always ready close by —
As you had it last, Rose!

Mrs. T. Lynch Union Square, corner 14th St.

DIAMONDS.

EXQUISITE beauty, rare eleings characterize the superb productions in Diamond and Gem Jewelry that we have just received. They will be sold at less than importers' prices.

Large Marquise Ring, 24 bluewhite Diamonds, cost to duplicate

AMUSEMENTS.

5TH AVE. THEATRE—B'way & 28th et.
PAULINE HALL PUBLITANIA SALL PUBLITANIA SALL OFFICE TIME. NOV. 18 TOWN WEEKS.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE C. MINER, Proprietor.

CARROLL JOHNSON GOSSOON.

**ARRIGANS THEATRE.

MANLEY MATTREES MANLEY MATTREES MATTREES MANLEY MATTREES MATTREES

"There's No Place Like Home."

Neither is there any place like

THE HOME CHART

when this home is for sale or to let.

AMUSEMENTS.

HUBER'S 4-LEGGED GIRL.

YUCCA

TONY PASTOR'S.

MATINEE TO-DAY.

WEBER & HIELD'S OWN CO.

JOHN NES AND VIDOUS MAND HUTH.

Nest West—TONY PASTOR HOME AGAIN. VAUDEVILLE AND BALLET. ADMISSION, SOc. RESERVED STATS, *1.

H. R. JACOBS' THEATRE, Cor. Stat of the control of the cont

TWINDSOR THEATRE, 46 and 47 flowery.
The roung, romantic frish co-redian,
GFO, H. TIMMONS, SONGS, DAN, ES, in FAIRIES' WELL. WIT HUMOR. In FAIRIES WELL. WIT HUMOR.

AMBERG THEATRE, Eve 5, 15, Mat. Sat. 2 P. M.
To-Night and Tu-Morrow, LEUTE, VON HEUTE, Tursdey, "Lei Verdacehitger Schwiegerschn."

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN,
THE GREAT FUOD SHOW
CLOSES THURSDAY NIGHT.
Auton beidi and his Metropolitan Orchestra.
Open 11 A. M. to 11 P. M. Admission 50c.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.
Reserved seals, Orchestra Circle and Balcony, 50c.
IARRY | THE PLANTER'S WIFE, | Wed & at LAUY | THE PLANTER'S WIFE, | Matiness.
Next Week - A DARK SECRET. PALMER'S THEATRE EVENINGS AT $ 16.

THE MASKED BALL DORIS'S STH AVE. DIME MUSEUM Last week of W. C. Coup's 16 trained bronco borses. Fanny Herring in drama Dick Turp n. High-class vaude-CANDY UNION SQUARE, 8.18.

Grand National Industrial Exhibition.

EDEN MUSEE, AMERICAN BALLERY Mons. Guibal and Marie Grevil's

To-night and to-morrow afternoon

To-night and to-morrow afternoon

Authors: Lajue's orchestra afternoon and evening.

PARK THEATRE Groad way,

COLUMBUS THEATRE, WEXENING ALL. THE POWER OF THE PRESS. SOTHERN LYCKUM THEATRE, 8.18

Matiness Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. GOGHLAN, " DIPLOMACY.

BEOSTEM & BIAL'S. Mate. Mon., Wed. and Sat.

NIBLO'S New Finglish M slodrama CURRENT CASH.
Tremendous Scenery Cast.
15c., 25c., 25c., 26c. BROADWAY THEATRE B'way and alst St.

ASINO.

ASINO.

Broadway and 39th a law of the standard at 2.

VAUDEVILLE AND BALLET, duission, 50 cents. Reserved seats, $1. $1.0 Last Week

STANDARD THEATRE. A Decided Sensation nightly at 9.55.

BALL of Adelphia Chapter No. 79, O. E. S., has been posiposed to Nov. 29.

PM ANHATTAN DANCING ACADEMY, 20 West 59th st., bet. 5th and 6th area.; 4 case lessons, 81.00. 24 lessons, 85; private lessons, 81.00; cor-rect waltz guaranteed, 85; receptions Wednesday, and Naturday evenines; daccing, 8,30 to 12; lady and gentlessen teachers; hest place in the city at popular prices. Send address for circular.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE. and 3d Aven bet old and 64th sts. Art. Novettien in Investion for AD ATA NOVETTIES IN AD ATA NOVETTIES IN A UNITED TO A DESCRIPTION OPEN FROM 10 A. M. until 10 P. M.

EVANS AND HOEY

Neat Week of the Advisors And Bat.

Neat Week of the Advisors And Bat.

Neat Week of the Advisors And Bat.

Neat Week of the Bat. Bat. Bat. Bat. Bat. Bat.

Muncai Lajos's orchestra atternoon and visiting.

1-STH STREET THEATRE. Rear 6th ave.
Resorved Seats. Orchestra Circle and Balcour, 50c.
Resorved Seats. Orchestra Circle and Balc.
HAILLEN AND HART
In their Brand New Musical Comedy.
The Idea.

THE HOME OF VAUDEVILLE.

Mona & Mma BERAT, KATHERINE B. HOWE, Vaudsville, Burlesque, Novelles, Next Week - FRED SOLOMON AS BLUEBEARD.

THE LADY HOPPER.

DANCING.

BEUDSON COUNTY JOURRY CLUB, MONTH Bergen, N. J.—Racing to-day and every day thereafter throughout the sassen. Boats from Franklin and 41d sta every fifteen minutes, connecting with steam elevator and sallread direct to track. Also from Barelay, Christopher and 14th to track. Also from Bare sy, turning with electric and size every ten minutes, connecting with electric and size m railroad. First race at 2 P. M. Admission, $1. Npecial boats rrom Annez Dock, Fullou st., Brooklyn, at 12.15 daily; Pennsylvania Decot, Jarsey City, at 12.30, leaving West shore Dock immediately after races. WHITEHEAD, Secretary.

lips before her storm of grief, so he bit

MISS GRAYSON'S ADVICE.

A Shower of Tears as an Aid to Matri- Mand had wondered whether it had monial Aspirations.

For two whole years Capt, Jumpison and Miss Oakley sniffed deprecatingly. Mand doubtfully, Miss Grayson was a dehad been the idol of the spinsters of Bun. She had been talking to Miss Grayson termined-looking old lady, but even she borough by-the-Sea. Cheery, good- for an hour and had told her sympathetic seemed to consider the project impractisation of the project interest good deal that was, in the land ticable. natured and good-looking, his private guage of the vulgar, "stale news," Miss "Did you ever try boohoo with any means were limited, if they existed at all, Grayson was quite aware (all Bunborough one?" said Miss Grayson. and his pay was insufficient to enable him might have told her) that Capt. Jumpito indulge any of those expensive tastes son had quite recently shown a distinct which lure young men from the milder preference for the Oakley family. He Grayson, excitedly: and an elderly lady delights of tea and tennis. He neither dined there whenever he was asked and who had selected the precise moment to hunted in Winter nor played polo in had wou Gen. Oakley's confidence be aunounced by Miss Grayson's pretty Summer; and he was always ready to by delicately expressing unbounded little parlor maid very nearly turned and dauce half the night at the Bunborough belief in his stories not always an easy fied. She came in however, and her imballs. He really was a very nice man in- task; he had been most attentive to old pression that Miss Grayson had gone dedeed; every one agreed that he would Mrs. Oakley during supper time at sev- mented was confirmed by the apparently make a very nice husband for tagor of eral balls, and his visits to the house for imbecile laughter with which her greeting the young ladies of Bunborough to whom 5 o'clock ten had not been limited by in- was received. he might finally determine to offer him-vitations issued to him or confined to Mand rose to leave and Miss Grayson. self : and for two years he distributed his those occasions when General and Mrs. who had recovered her presence of mind favors freely, but with absolute impar- Oakley were at home; but there were sufficiently to inquire after her new vis-

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When ske had Children, she gave them Casteria cowards know it," said Miss Grayson, of to be devoted was a question which Bunthe Valley Cottage, to Maud Oakley, who borough by the Sea would have liked to child?" she said, kissing her affection-though she admitted she had her fears. "Geraldine has Dr. Coverdale," said "She would be quite happy with bim. 'Quite so," said Miss Grayson. "It never rains but it pours." ever "poured" with suitors in Miss Grayson's young days, and said nothing. "Can't we make Dr. Coverdale propose to her?" said Miss Grayson.

"And Geraldine accept him?" added

"What !" said Maud. "Boohoo, boohoo," cried Miss two Miss Onkleys, and to which of them liter's husband the had been dead seven had been unbosoming her soul to her. have answered. It was not strange, how- ately on the doorstep. "Cry, cry, cry down the firsty road leading from the bar rived; and "on Her Majesty's service" no harm in beginning with her." Miss Grayson was the kindest of elderly ever, that the public were puzzled when your eyes out; not one of the wretches in racks to Bunborough as if he trod on air. it informed him he was expected to proadies where young people's love affairs, Maud Oakley had had to confess to Miss a baker's dozen of them can stand tears."

"GOOD-GOOD-BOO-HOO."

Meanwhile Capt. Jumpison was striding

There is safety in numbers and the Capt. Jumpison intended his attentions years), accompanied her to the front door, somewhat enigmatical advice site had re-tion which had that afternoon altered the stopped. "Hang wards know it," said Miss Grayson, of to be devoted was a question which Bun. "Don't you understand, you silly ce'ved. "Hang "On Her Majesty's service" it had ar-

He scarcely knew how he had transferred ceed forthwith to a somewhat distant cluded the dispensation of substantial engaged to be mar "--justice with lavish hand to sundry swarthy fellow-subjects and the instruction of the male portion of them in the setly." use of obsolete weapons and the evolutions of an improved drill,

THE LILIPUTIANS.

fond of Maud, though, of course, she did ernment House to flirt with. not care for him; did she not always retire give him more than four dances in one thing I have been wanting." most ran up the garden walk.

"chair back " nervously. "It is a fine day," she said, and then say good-by," Hang it," he thought : "I meant to letter to show her.

enough, did she. She looked very pretty could hardly open the window and shout, The climate-well, every rose has its blushing, and with her lower lip quiver. He moved towards the drawing-room thorn, and Government House and his ing a little. Geraldine was not so pretty door, but he had to pass the sofa, and as society would reconcile Geraldine Oakley as Maud, he admitted to himself as he he did so the girl on it rose, as if she, too, to a bursting thermometer and a diet of looked at her; but so much the better, half dazed, was seeking a way of escape; quinine. She could have her eister to stay Geraldine would be all the less likely to rnd as their hands met on the doorwith her if she felt lonely; he was quite flirt, if, that is, there was any one at Gov. handle she sank sobbing into his arms.

when he came to tea and leave him alone I told you (or was it your sister?) my from which he could desist, for he could with her elder sister, and always refuse to uncle was trying to get for me-the very scarcely let her drop on the floor.

evening? But Geraldine was different. And he proceeded to paint the charms again; "will no one come?" But the Dr. Coverdale would do very well for of the new career opening before him in house was still, and he reflected that per-Maud when Geraldine was gone. There glowing colors. He said nothing about haps it was as well that no one should she was-Maud, not Geraldine standing the quinine. When he came to an end of come in at that precise juncture at all on the top step waiting for him as he al- all the details she was sitting, with an ex- events, not without warning; and so there pression of deep interest, looking at him, was another pause broken only by her 'How do you do?' she said shyly, as and he felt that had she only been Ger- sobs. He could see her sister through the she ushered him into the drawing-room. aldine the very moment would have at- muslin blinds. She was looking over the "I will go and tell Geraldine you are rived—that precise opportunity not garden gate, talking to some one. Would always easy to obtain, particularly in a she change her mind and bring whoever.

He was delighted; could anything have small villa. "And so," he said, feeling it was in to tea? If she did, Maud would been more thoughtful? But, oddly he must bring his tale to a conclusion and surely hear them entering the house and enough, she did not go. She sat down, give her an excuse for going to fetch her retreat. But Geraldine stood talking at on the contrary, and began fingering a sister-" and so, Miss Oakley, I leave the gate. Only the rector were a high Bunborough very soon, and have come to hat at Bunborough-by-the-Sea and Dr.

"Good-good-boo-boo." "Hang it," he thought: "I meant to she did not but the re's had startled Miss Grayson's visitor; but way.

tell Geraldine the news first, but there's had startled Miss Grayson's visitor; but way.

"Boo-hoo!" It was a very gentle one She did not bit the precise note which Geraldine passed into the sunny road-So he began, pulling out his official fying.

"My God!" he murmured. And she For a minute be said nothing ; his first inarticulate entreaty to her died on his

"Oh, no!" he answered, "not exactly his mustache in silence. Then the front that is, not yet in fact, I mean not ex- door slammed : Miss Geraldine Oakley was going out for a walk, totally unaware And he got very red, and so, curiously of his arrival. Could he stop her? He "Don't, don't !" she whispered, hardly "No." he said, "it's the appointment articulately, but he was doing nothing

"Good God!" said Capt. Jumpise

Coverdale. "Click!" went the garden gate as this time, from somewhere near his

"Click!" went the garden gate, as it swung back on its hinges.